

Eurasia

The Realm of Traditional Values

Information Bulletin dated April 8, 2026

ANO Evrazia is an autonomous nonprofit organization dedicated to promoting international cooperation, which implements projects using private funding.

The organization, founded in April 2024, has already brought together more than 120,000 people of all ages and professions in nearly 40 countries, from Armenia and Moldova to Germany and the Netherlands.

Evrazia opens up new opportunities for children, young people, and families from different countries, while also bringing together professionals - teachers, doctors, journalists, scientists, experts, and specialists from other fields - to carry out joint projects in areas ranging from education and medicine to culture and philanthropy.

Autonomous Nonprofit Organization Evrazia carries out humanitarian, volunteer, and environmental missions, supports socially significant initiatives, and its flagship projects strengthen the role of the Russian language as a platform for intercultural dialogue on the continent.

Evrazia's primary mission is to bring together like-minded people from different countries to preserve historical memory, strengthen traditional spiritual and moral values, and uphold the shared cultural heritage of the peoples of Eurasia.
